

Alpha Phi Standing Rules

Every chapter and chapter member are expected to adhere to the Standing Rules; failure to do so is sufficient reason for a chapter or member to be subject to disciplinary action as detailed below.

Examples

1. Unlawful Acts and Disciplined - Chapters are expected to comply with all laws, regulations and/or ordinances of the applicable country, state, province, county, city, as well as the policies rules, and standards of conduct of the host institution.
2. Risk Reduction - Chapters have implemented a comprehensive risk reduction policy in accordance with the outline set forth by the executive office.
3. Duty to report violations - Any member who is aware of or has reason to believe violations of these Standing Rules are taking place, is expected to report such violations to a chapter advisor and/or officer.
4. Alcohol and Drug Policy - Chapters are expected to comply with all local laws and ordinances.
5. Illegal Drugs and Other Controlled Substance- must follow all applicable federal laws in the United States or Canada relating to illegal drugs, narcotics or other controlled substances.
6. Human Dignity - Alpha Phi prohibits behaviors that intend to be, or are reasonably foreseeable to be, undignified, threatening, intimidating, bullying or harassing to another person or group within member activities.
7. Hazing - Alpha Phi Prohibits behaviors that intend to be or are reasonably foreseeable to be hazing as defined by all applicable laws.
8. Weapons and Violence - Alpha Phi and its members are expected to comply with all applicable laws and campus policy as it relates to weapons, firearms or explosive or incendiary devices. These devices are all prohibited from the chapter facility and at all Alpha Phi activities or events.
9. Membership - Alpha Phi believes that a multicultural experience during the college years enhances each member's ability to function in a pluralistic society, Alpha Phi affirms that it does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, sexual orientation, national origin, religious preference, individual political affiliation or disability. Alpha Phi will not tolerate such discrimination by any of its members.